RESUME OF KAMIL TAHA SAID

Kamil T. Said was born in Baghdad, Iraq, on 12 February 1914. He is a United States citizen (naturalized).

He received his early schooling in Baghdad and attended the American University of Beirut from 1932 to 1935. He received a B. A. degree from Colorado State College of Education in Greeley in 1937. He attended Cornell University the summer of 1949 studying linguistics. He received a M. A. in History from San Jose State College in 1967.

He taught at various schools in Baghdad, Iraq, from 1937 to 1943.

In 1947 he became Chairman of the Arabic Language Department at the Defense Language Institute (West Coast) at the Presidio of Monterey, California. He retired in July 1973.

From 1959 to the present time he is a part-time teacher at the Monterey Peninsula College, Monterey, California, teaching History of the Middle East.

In July 1975 he joined the faculty of the Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California, where he is teaching in the Department of National Security Affairs.

In addition to his formal education he has attended a number of conferences on Middle Eastern Affairs at Princeton University and Georgetown University; and on linguistics and language teaching at Michigan University, Harvard University, and Columbia University.
